Coker Named President-Elect of Women Business Owners of Denton County

Denton, TX—September 2006: Louellen S. Coker, Owner of Content Solutions, was voted President-Elect of the Women Business Owners of Denton County in September 2006. She begins her role as President-Elect in January 2007.

The Women Business Owners of Denton County is a non-profit organization established to strengthen women owned businesses economically, socially and politically via energizing and expanding its members' centers of influence. Their vision is to create productive, interactive groups of business people.

“It’s an honor to represent the members of this organization,” Mrs. Coker stated. “I look forward to working with this year’s board members as we help develop and implement an outstanding program year for our fellow women business owner members.”

The Women Business Owners of Denton County holds monthly luncheons on the first Tuesday of each month.
